

PROFILE:

The Successful 9th Grader...

ORGANIZATION

Maintains regular/consistent use of an agenda for assignments

Completes homework on time

Attends school every day

Reports to class prepared and on time

Maintains orderly folders and notebooks

EXPECTATIONS

Demonstrates respect for self and others

Uses an alarm clock daily and gets him/herself up, dressed and out the door on time for the bus

Seeks assistance during 9th opportunity from teachers

Studies for tests and quizzes

Understands and abides by appropriate use of electronic devices

Remains seated and attentive throughout the class period

Communicates with teachers regarding academic performance and expectations

UNDERSTANDS

Credits are earned not awarded

Academic failure results in loss of credit and may result in summer school and/or retention

Homework is an important part of one's grade and reinforces daily learning

College and career readiness begins in grade 9

Remember..... you are responsible for your own success!