New Business
A. Walt Disney has been making Facebook posts several times per week to let parents know what our students are doing.
B. Volunteers are needed for the Pint Sized Heroes Blood drive on Friday November 6. Please see Amy Gardner if you are able to help out.

Principal Updates – A list of PTO sponsored events with event dates was sent home this week. This allows parents to see events coming up and lets parents know how many events are actually sponsored by PTO. This is A great way to let parents see what some of the money earned from fundraisers is spent on during the school year.

Parent Conversations – What kind of guest speakers would parents like to have at PTO meetings:
A. cyber bullying
B. Internet safety
C. Food Allergies
D. Childhood depression and anxiety
